

Stories from
Café De
Gâlâlâ

Cooper Gallery, Barnsley
Saturday 25 May to Saturday 31 August
FREE ADMISSION

Immerse yourself in the sights, sounds and smells of the bustling city of Constantinople and hear tales from the Grand Tour. Artists Richard Johnson and Amanda Johnson have created this wonderful interactive installation inspired by the painting 'Café De Galata' by Charles Theodore Frere. The original painting was brought to Barnsley by Samuel Joshua Cooper, the founder of the Cooper Gallery and will be on display for the duration of the exhibition.

The exhibition will be supported by a programme of storytelling sessions and workshops every Saturday throughout the exhibition at 10am, 11.30am and 2pm. Please contact the Cooper Gallery on 01226 242905 for full details.

Exhibition opens on Saturday 25 May and runs until Saturday 31 August.

Opening Times:

Monday to Friday 10am to 4pm

Saturday 10am to 3pm
